1. Operating Results and Financial Position

(1) Operating Results

1-1) Overview of FY March 2009

① Overview of Operating Results

	Net sales (Millions of yen)	Operating income (Millions of yen)	Ordinary income (Millions of yen)	Net income (Millions of yen)	Net income per share (Yen)
FY March 2009	190,108	4,455	5,582	3,293	29.87
FY March 2008	214,844	9,832	10,507	5,951	53.82
Changes (%)	(11.5%)	(54.7%)	(46.9%)	(44.7%)	(44.5%)

During the fiscal year under review, Japan's economy suffered due to persistent steep increases in the prices of crude oil and raw materials that continued from the previous fiscal year into the first half. In the latter half, as the global ramifications of the financial turmoil following the collapse of Lehman Brothers affected the real economy, demand slumped at an unprecedented rate, making for an extremely difficult business climate that persisted throughout the period.

Under these circumstances, the Okamura Group (hereinafter the "Group") focused on developing new markets and cultivating new customer bases to make up for the shrinking aggregate demand. However, the negative effects thereof prevailed particularly among companies that curbed investment and cut expenses in response to the downturn in business, and this contributed to a decline in the Group's sales revenues and earnings.

Consequently, the Group's current term net sales were ¥190,108 million (a decrease of 11.5% year on year).

From the perspective of profit and loss, despite reduced selling, general and administrative expenses, because the decrease in net sales and gross profit had a greater impact than these reductions, Okamura Corporation (hereinafter the "Company") on a consolidated basis posted an ordinary income of ¥5,582 million (a year-on-year decrease of 46.9%) and current net income of ¥3,293 million (a year-on-year decrease of 44.7%).

② Segment Information

(Millions of yen)

	Net sales			Operating income (loss)
	FY March 2008	FY March 2009	Change	FY March 2008	FY March 2009	Change
Office Furniture	136,833	115,625	(21,208)	9,113	3,807	(5,306)
Store Displays	63,077	62,570	(507)	295	1,074	779
Material Handling Systems and Others	14,932	11,912	(3,020)	423	(426)	(850)

i) Office Furniture

The Office Furniture segment, the Company's mainstay line of business, slowed down substantially, hit directly by the effects of the slumping demand. The segment's net sales during the first half of the year under review trended 5% lower year-on-year but the year-on-year rate of decline accelerated to a substantial 25% during the latter half. As an increasing number of companies began downsizing their personnel base, in addition to curbing investment and cutting expenses, demand arising from office relocations and from office renovations both weakened substantially.

In such circumstances, office-related demand remained solid among companies seeking greater office efficiency and cost savings as a way of cutting expenses. In response to this, the Company aggressively pursued the solution-oriented business with particular emphasis on proposals to introduce the "creative office" concept involving the transformation of offices into "intellectually creative spaces," combined with solutions to reviewing work styles. These efforts to revive business however fell short of making up for the negative effects of the shrinking aggregate demand.

As a result of these developments, net sales in this segment were ¥115,625 million (a decrease of 15.5% year-on-year), and operating income was ¥3,807 million (a decrease of 58.2%).

ii) Store Displays

In the Store Displays segment, the business environment continued to remain challenging as retailers curbed their investments and shifted to smaller store formats in the face of slowing personal consumption as a consequence of increasingly adverse employment and income conditions. In such circumstances, the Company focused its efforts on total store solutions and acquisition of new customers, driven by keywords: "food safety and reassurance," "higher energy efficiency" and "low cost operation." The segment's operating income rate improved as a result of reductions in the cost of manufacturing merchandise display shelving for retailers, as well as other various improvements implemented.

As a result, net sales in this segment were ¥62,570 million (a decrease of 0.8% year-on-year), and operating income was ¥1,074 million (a increase of 264.2%).

iii) Material Handling Systems and Others

In the material handling systems segment, the Company aggressively pursued sales activities using solution-based proposals tailored focusing on the logistics centers and plants. However, increasing numbers of customers in this business too began to postpone or curb new investment as their market conditions deteriorated, leading to a decline in the number of projects being launched. This, coupled with disappointing progress with regard to efforts to cultivate new customers, put a dent in the segment's sales revenue.

As a result, this segment reported net sales of ¥11,912 million (a decrease of 20.2% year-on-year) and a net operating loss of ¥426 million.

1-2) Outlook for Fiscal 2010

	Net sales (Millions of yen)	Operating income (Millions of yen)	Ordinary income (Millions of yen)	Net income (Millions of yen)	Net income per share (Yen)
FY March 2010	187,000	5,400	6,200	3,500	31.74
FY March 2009	190,108	4,455	5,582	3,293	29.87
Change (%)	(1.6%)	21.2%	11.1%	6.3%	6.3%

The global economic downturn is expected to continue for an extended period of time. Since this perpetuates a negative spiral of depressed corporate earnings leading to curbed business investment plans and aggravated employment and income conditions, further weakening personal consumption, the environment surrounding the Group will likely continue to be challenging.

Amid such circumstances, in the mainstay Office Furniture segment, the Company will aggressively expand the solution-based business model, its proven forte, by taking on firm office demands arising from improvements in office efficiency, review of work styles and corporate restructuring. At the same time, in order to minimize the effects of shrinking aggregate demand in the office related market, the Company will emphasize the marketing of solutions within a variety of public facilities, including educational and medical institutions. Furthermore, the Company will simultaneously implement cost reductions and higher quality, with the aim to strengthen international competitiveness from the mid to long-term perspectives. The Company will actively pursue developing the overseas business with a view to full-fledged entry into the global market. By making maximum use of its superior product development capabilities and technological expertise, the Company will continue to work on developing new products on a timely basis and exploring products designed to prepare for the next stage of growth.

In the Store Displays segment, with shrinking total demand, the difficult business environment is likely to continue. The Company will seek to increase sales from new customers acquired by taking advantage of our strength in comprehensive offerings and total store solution proposals. The Company will also seek to expand and put this operation on a more competitive footing by developing the Visplay business in new markets and by developing the store maintenance and servicing business at SEC Co., Ltd., a newly consolidated subsidiary.

In the Material Handling Systems and Others segment, customers, with their market conditions declining, continue to postpone or curb new investments. The Company will enhance its proposals to attract more orders for total solutions by taking advantage of proposals using logistics engineering and new products that are distinguished by their superiority. The Company will also undertake full-fledged action to promote sector-specific solutions by utilizing synergies with other business segments, in order to achieve a turnaround in revenues and earnings.

In terms of initiatives to improve profitability, the Company will implement further reductions in production costs primarily by pursuing continuous productivity improvement and cost reduction efforts by virtue of OPS (Okamura Production System) while also working on restructuring production capabilities for better optimization. All of these activities reflect the Company's commitment to consistent corporate reforms aiming for steady and highly profitable corporate structure through prioritized and efficient investment in managerial resources.

For fiscal 2010 the Company anticipates consolidated net sales of ¥187 billion, consolidated ordinary income of ¥6.2 billion, and consolidated net income of ¥3.5 billion.

(2) Financial Position

① Total Assets, Liabilities and Net Assets

	FY March 2008 (Millions of yen)	FY March 2009 (Millions of yen)
Total assets	185,855	167,894
Net assets	83,121	76,939
Equity ratio	42.7%	45.5%
Net assets per share (Yen)	719.32	692.34

Total assets at the end of the year under review amounted to ¥167,894 million, a decrease of ¥17,960 million over the end of the previous fiscal year. Current assets decreased by ¥12,555 million, due primarily to decreases in trade receivables in spite of an increase in cash & time deposits and inventories, whereas fixed assets decreased by ¥5,404 million, due primarily to a decrease in investment securities.

Total liabilities at the end of the year under review amounted to ¥90,954 million, a decrease of ¥11,779 million from the end of the previous fiscal year. This reflected decreases in trade payables and income taxes payable, despite an increase in long-term loans payable.

Total net assets at the end of the year under review were ¥76,939 million, a decrease of ¥6,181 million over the end of the previous fiscal year. This primarily reflected a decrease in unrealized holding gains on other securities, despite an increase in retained earnings as a result of net income earned. The equity ratio increased by 2.8 percentage points to 45.5%.

② Cash Flows

	FY March 2008 (Millions of yen)	FY March 2009 (Millions of yen)
Cash flows from operating activities	11,951	8,012
Cash flows from investing activities	(4,308)	(10,194)
Cash flows from financing activities	(4,849)	1,196
Cash and cash equivalents at the interim-term (year) end	19,496	18,425
Borrowings and corporate bonds at the term (year) end	29,280	32,192

Operating activities generated a net cash increase of ¥8,012 million, reflecting inflows including net income before income taxes of ¥5,468 million, depreciation expenses of ¥6,107 million, and a decrease in trade receivables of ¥11,056 million. Outflows included a decrease in trade payables of ¥10,005 million, a decrease in allowance for bonus payable of ¥1,410 million, and income and other tax payments of ¥3,510 million.

Investing activities resulted in a net cash outflow of ¥10,194 million, primarily reflecting disbursements of ¥6,420 million to acquire tangible and intangible fixed assets and of ¥2,089 million to acquire subsidiary stock.

Financing activities resulted in a net cash increase of ¥1,196 million, primarily reflecting proceeds from an increase in long-term loans payable of ¥2,901 million, despite outlays of ¥1,655 million to pay cash dividends.

Consequently, cash and cash equivalents at the end of the fiscal year under review decreased by ¥1,071 million to ¥18,425 million.

The balance of interest-bearing debt (borrowings and corporate bonds) at the end of the current term under review increased by ¥2,912 million compared to the previous fiscal year to ¥32,192 million.

(Reference) Trends of cash flow indicators

	FY March 2005	FY March 2006	FY March 2007	FY March 2008	FY March 2009
Equity ratio (%)	36.8	41.5	42.9	42.7	45.5
Market value-based equity ratio (%)	54.1	69.8	76.4	40.9	29.5
Ratio of interest-bearing debt to cash flows (times)	4.3	3.3	6.3	2.4	4.0
Interest coverage ratio (times)	15.2	25.6	11.1	27.5	16.3

Equity ratio: Shareholders' equity/Total assets

Market value-based equity ratio: Market capitalization/Total assets

Ratio of interest-bearing debt to cash flows: Cash flows/Interest-bearing debt

Interest coverage ratio: Operating cash flow/Interest payments

(Note 1) All of the above cash flow indicators are calculated on a consolidated basis.

(Note 2) Market capitalization is calculated based on the total number of shares issued and outstanding adjusted for treasury stock.

(Note 3) Operating cash flow equals cash flows from operating activities stated in the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

(Note 4) Interest-bearing debt equals all liabilities on which interests are paid, as stated in the Consolidated Balance Sheets. Interest payments are equal to interests paid as stated in the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

(3) Basic Policies Regarding Allocation of Profits/Dividends in the Fiscal Year Under Review and the Next Fiscal Year

We consider the return of profits to shareholders to be an important management priority. To maintain stable dividend payments while increasing enterprise value, we will take into account the needs to bolster internal reserves to provide for investments, as well as business performance and balance funding.

In accordance with these policies, we decided to target annual cash dividends of ¥5.00 per share. Therefore, including the interim dividends (¥7.50 per share), dividends applicable to the year will be ¥12.50 per share, the same amount as the previous year.

Dividends for next fiscal year are forecast to be ¥12.50 per share.

2. Group Companies

The Group comprises the Company, fourteen consolidated subsidiaries and four affiliated companies. The Group's principal businesses are: the manufacture and sale of office furniture, store displays, and material handling systems. In these business segments the Group offers logistics, installation, and other services.

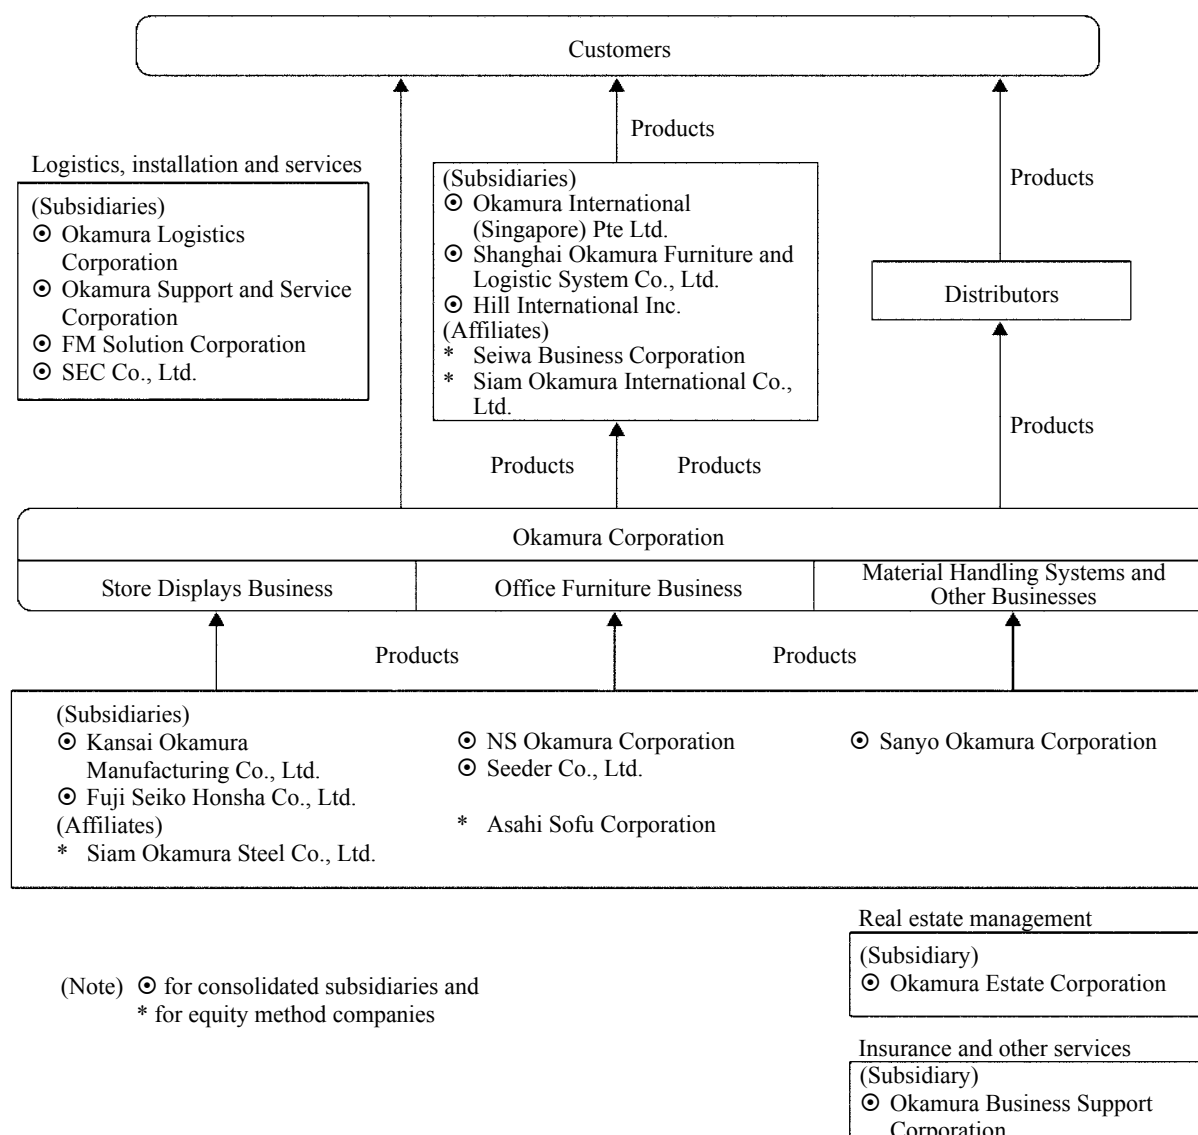

In the office furniture, store displays, and material handling systems business segments, the Company and consolidated subsidiaries including Kansai Okamura Manufacturing Co., Ltd., NS Okamura Corporation, Sanyo Okamura Corporation, Seeder Co., Ltd., and Fuji Seiko Honsha Co., Ltd. engage in manufacturing operations.

In the office furniture, store displays, and material handling systems business segments, the Company engages in sales operations primarily itself and also through its consolidated subsidiaries Okamura International (Singapore) Pte Ltd. and Shanghai Okamura Furniture and Logistic System Co., Ltd., and the Company's affiliates Seiwa Business Corporation and Siam Okamura International Co., Ltd., as well as through the Company's distributors.

In other related businesses, the consolidated subsidiary Okamura Logistics Corporation engages in the Group's logistics and installation for office furniture, store displays, and material handling systems operations, while Okamura Support and Service Corporation undertakes the Group's installation and services. SEC Co., Ltd., which became a consolidated subsidiary in the end of the current term, offers installation and services mainly in the Store Displays business.

Consolidated subsidiaries Okamura Business Support Corporation and Okamura Estate Corporation engage in insurance and real estate management operations for the Group.

The organization chart below depicts the business structure of the Group. Business segments in the chart correspond to those in the Segment Information section.

3. Management Policy

(1) Basic Management Policy

Guided by its watchwords for corporate reform—information technology, globalization, and specialization—the Group engages in business activities grounded in a basic policy of building and strengthening a relationship of trust with society by constructing a stable management base, engaging in efficient, profit-oriented management, and demonstrating concern for the natural environment.

The Company proclaimed itself “Cooperative Industry—Okamura Seisakusho” when in 1945, a company of engineers, led by its founder, made mutual contributions of funds, technical expertise, and labor to launch it into operation. Throughout its existence, human bonds of the technologically minded have formed the foundation of its operations, primarily in the lines of office furniture, store displays, material handling systems and others. True to its motto that “Quality pays for itself” are the integrated development, manufacture, and distribution of high-quality products that customers feel enrich their amenity environment, as well as turnkey offerings tailored to customers’ diverse space requirements. These comprise the Company’s approach to setting itself apart from its competition in its pursuit of ensuring and enhancing its corporate value and hence its common shareholder value.

(2) Target Performance Indicators

The Group places importance on return on assets (ROA), return on shareholders’ equity (ROE), and ratio of operating income to sales as key indicators of business performance. The Company strives at all times to improve profitability through cost consciousness and to focus on improving investment efficiency by exercising selectivity and concentration in the allocation of management resources.

(3) Medium- to Long-Term Business Strategy

1) Reducing Break-even Point

The Company will reduce its break-even point to sales ratio in the interest of ensuring growth in operating income. To this end, its manufacturing cost initiatives focus on curtailing material expenses and enhancing productivity by virtue of OPS, while its efforts to improve the structure of selling and administrative expenses include reducing cost-center personnel and overhauling overhead costs.

2) Office Furniture

As private-sector demand for office space remains stagnant, the Company’s marketing will continue to put greater emphasis on proposals based on the “creative office” concept as well as solutions to streamlining facility costs and to accommodating needs regarding the consolidation and relocation of offices. The Company seeks to enhance its capacity, such as by expanding dedicated teams, to win business from investment projects in the market segment of government and public agencies and educational institutions, which promises to be a stable source of demand.

Furthermore, by exploiting its robust sales and marketing network the Company expects to secure a substantial share of the market arising from large-scale redevelopment projects being undertaken in central Tokyo.

3) Store Displays

The Company’s operating environment in the distribution/retail market is likely to continue to be difficult going forward, as consumer spending remains sluggish. Despite this environment, the Company will expand its business domain into the field of equipment maintenance and servicing by making SEC Co., Ltd. into a wholly owned subsidiary.

In the growing boutique market, the Company seeks to expand sales into the commercial interiors field via its partnership with Visplay, a major European manufacturer of store fixtures and equipment. Furthermore, by responding quickly to customer needs arising from external changes affecting the retailing sector, including the implementation of the revised Pharmaceutical Affairs Act and stricter environmental protection requirements, the Company will continue to work on maximizing sales and enhancing profit margins.

4) Material Handling Systems and Others

The Company’s operating environment in this business segment is likely to continue to be difficult, as private-sector capital spending remains depressed. Despite this environment, the Company seeks to expand sales by stepping up efforts to offer solutions matching needs regarding the storage and sorting of small articles in distribution centers, an area which the Company counts as being among its strengths. The Company also seeks to expand sales of clean-room conveyor systems that take advantage of the unique expertise of its subsidiary Seeder Co., Ltd., particularly for use in photovoltaic power unit manufacturing facilities where customers’ interest is increasing.

5) Overseas Operations

In keeping with global economic trends, the Company’s overseas operations report flattening sales growth. Even under such circumstances, however, sales show growth in the Middle East, particularly in Dubai where the Company set up a new sales base last year, and in emerging countries, including Russia and Brazil where the Company has signed a new contract. The Company will exhibit its new product, “Leopard,” at the NeoCon World’s Trade Fair 2009 to be held in Chicago in June this year, with a view to facilitating a recovery in sales in the United States, the biggest market in the world. Furthermore, the Company will build a stronger capability to accommodate the needs of Japanese distributors/retailers expanding and opening outlets in China, in order to ensure sales revenue and earnings growth.

(4) Issues Facing the Company

To cope with a social milieu characterized by diversification, globalization and other sweeping social transformations that are likely to continue to occur in the coming years, the Company has periodically convened the Business Process Improvement Committee, flexibly and rapidly responded to the changes, and implemented a series of profit improvement measures necessary to sustain and increase growth and profitability.

In future business development, the Company will aggressively invest management resources in growth business sectors on the basis of a medium-term management strategy grounded in selectivity and concentration, engage in continued restructuring across all businesses and organizations, work to increase capital efficiency, and promote management reform to establish a highly profitable corporate structure.

4 Accounting standards	(5) Significant hedge accounting method ① Hedge accounting method The Company has adopted an exceptional treatment for interest rate swap transactions since the requirements for the treatment have been met. Foreign currency-denominated receivables that are hedged by forward foreign exchange contracts are accounted for using the contracted forward rates. ② Hedge method and transactions to be hedged (Hedge method) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Interest rate swap transactions</li> <li>• Forward exchange transactions (Transactions to be hedged)</li> <li>• Interest on borrowings (with the risk of loss that may arise due to fluctuations in the interest rate market and will consequently change cash flows)</li> <li>• Foreign currency receivables (with the risk of loss that may arise due to fluctuations in the foreign exchange market and will consequently change cash flows)</li> </ul> ③ Hedging policy The Company will engage in derivatives transactions in order to avoid risk of interest rate fluctuations or reduce the burden of interest payment, not in those with a speculative purpose or high leverage effect. The Company will also engage in currency derivatives transactions within the volume of contracts for assets, liabilities, or transactions in foreign currency, since the purpose of derivatives transactions is to hedge transactions in foreign currency against the risk of exchange rate fluctuations. The Company will therefore not conduct derivatives transactions for speculative purposes. ④ Method for valuating the effectiveness of hedge transactions The Company has adopted an exceptional treatment for interest rate swap transactions since the notional principal, conditions for receipt and payment of interest (such as the interest rate and dates of receipt and payment of interest) and contract terms are the same as those for transactions being hedged. The Company has not therefore conducted post tests to evaluate the effectiveness of interest rate transactions. Forward exchange contracts are used to hedge foreign currency exposures under a risk management policy of designing the contract, as it is concluded, to have the same amount and maturity in order to establish a relationship that cancels out any subsequent change in the exchange rate. This allows the Company to dispense with evaluation of the effectiveness of such hedges at the settlement of accounts. ⑤ Other risk control methods concerned with hedge accounting Since the issuance of corporate bonds to be hedged, borrowing of a large amount of money, and similar acts are subject to resolutions by the board of directors, the conclusion of currency swap or interest rate swap contracts as a means of hedging such bond issuances, borrowings, and the like are to be resolved at the time of the act by the board of directors. Currency and interest derivatives transactions are conducted and managed by the Accounting Department subject to the Corporate Management Rules.	(5) Significant hedge accounting method ① Hedge accounting method Same as left ② Hedge method and transactions to be hedged Same as left ③ Hedging policy Same as left ④ Method for valuating the effectiveness of hedge transactions Same as left ⑤ Other risk control methods concerned with hedge accounting Same as left

Notes: 1. Business segmentation method

Business segmentation is based on considerations of similarities among product types (inclusive of operations) and markets.

2. Classification of main products by business segment

Business segment	Main Products
Office Furniture	Office furniture, Cultural and educational facilities, Partitions, Medical and research facilities, Security systems, SOHO-related products
Store Displays	Showcases for stores, Refrigerated showcases, Counters for stores
Material Handling Systems and Others	Racks and stackers for factories and warehouses, Automated material handling systems, Torque converters for industrial and construction equipment, Real estate leasing, Insurance

3. Of assets at the end of the consolidated fiscal year, corporate assets included in the corporate and eliminations item amounted to ¥49,310 million and consisted primarily of cash and time deposits and investment securities and others.

4. As stated in (6) Significant Items for the Preparation of Consolidated Financial Statements 4(2)① on page 18, effective with this consolidated fiscal year the Company adopted the accounting methods described below.

(Change in accounting policy)

Pursuant to revisions on the Corporate Tax Law ((Law concerning revision on part of Corporate Tax Law and others, dated Mar. 30, 2007, Law No. 6) and (Cabinet Order concerning revision on part of Order for Enforcement of Corporate Tax Law, dated Mar. 30, 2007, Cabinet Order No. 83)), presentation of acquisitions on or after April 1, 2007 were changed to comply with the revised Corporate Tax Law. Compared with the results based on the same method used in the previous consolidated fiscal year, the effect of this change was to increase segmental operating expenses by the amount indicated below for each segment and to reduce segmental operating income by the same amount indicated for each segment.

(Office Furniture: ¥168 million; Store Displays: ¥48 million and; Material Handling Systems and Others: ¥13 million)

(Additional information)

For tangible assets acquired on or before March 31, 2007, depreciation is accounted for up to the limit amount available for depreciation over a period of five years in equal amounts, starting from the next consolidated fiscal year after completion of the depreciation. Compared with the results based on the same method used in the previous consolidated fiscal year, the effect of this change was to increase segmental operating expenses by the amount indicated below for each segment and to reduce segmental operating income by the same amount indicated for each segment.

(Office Furniture: ¥204 million; Store Displays: ¥73 million and; Material Handling Systems and Others: ¥19 million)

Notes: 1. Business segmentation method

Business segmentation is based on considerations of similarities among product types (inclusive of operations) and markets.

2. Classification of main products by business segment

Business segment	Main Products
Office Furniture	Office furniture, Cultural and educational facilities, Partitions, Medical and research facilities, Security systems, SOHO-related products
Store Displays	Showcases for stores, Refrigerated showcases, Counters for stores
Material Handling Systems and Others	Racks and stackers for factories and warehouses, Automated material handling systems, Torque converters for industrial and construction equipment, Real estate leasing, Insurance

3. Out of assets at the end of the consolidated fiscal year, corporate assets included in the corporate and eliminations item amounted to ¥32,384 million and consisted primarily of cash and time deposits and investment securities and others.

4. As stated in (6) Significant Items for the Preparation of Consolidated Financial Statements 4 (1)② and (2)① on pages 17 and 18, effective with this consolidated fiscal year the Company adopted the accounting methods described below.

(Change in accounting policy)

The Company adopted the Accounting Standard for Valuation of Inventories (ASBJ Statement No. 9, issued by the Accounting Standards Board of Japan on July 5, 2006) and changed its valuation policy from the cost method to a cost basis (which reduces the book value of assets whose profitability has diminished). Compared with the results based on the same method used in the previous consolidated fiscal year, the effect of this change for this consolidated fiscal year was to reduce operating income in Office Furniture and in Store Displays by ¥282 million and by ¥110 million, respectively, and to increase operating loss in Material Handling Systems and Others by ¥63 million.

(Additional information)

Following the revision of the Corporate Tax Law in the 2008 fiscal year, effective with this consolidated fiscal year the Company changed the number of useful life years it uses in respect of machinery and equipment to conform to the same criteria as prescribed in the revised Corporate Tax Law.

Compared with the results based on the same method used in the previous consolidated fiscal year, the effect of this change for this consolidated fiscal year was to reduce operating income in Office Furniture and in Store Displays by ¥67 million and by ¥47 million, respectively, and to increase operating loss in Material Handling Systems and Others by ¥32 million.

[Geographically Segmented Information]

FY March 2008 (From Apr. 1, 2007 to Mar. 31, 2008)

Because net sales and assets for Japan exceed 90% of aggregate net sales and assets for all segments, geographically segmented information is omitted.

FY March 2009 (From Apr. 1, 2008 to Mar. 31, 2009)

Because net sales and assets for Japan exceed 90% of aggregate net sales and assets for all segments, geographically segmented information is omitted.

[Overseas sales]

FY March 2008 (From Apr. 1, 2007 to Mar. 31, 2008)

Overseas sales were omitted since they accounted for less than 10% of total consolidated sales.

FY March 2009 (From Apr. 1, 2008 to Mar. 31, 2009)

Overseas sales were omitted since they accounted for less than 10% of total consolidated sales.

5 Standards for providing for allowances	(1) Allowance for doubtful accounts In order to provide against loss arising from bad debts, the Company has provided for estimated uncollectable amounts. a. General receivables Based on the method of actual bad debt rates. b. Receivables from doubtful, bankrupt, or reorganized debtors Based on the method of valuating financial positions. (2) Allowance for bonuses payable To prepare for the payment of bonuses to employees, the amount expected to be payable to all employees for this fiscal year was determined based on the portion of total amount expected to be payable corresponding to this fiscal year. (3) Severance and employee retirement benefits To prepare for payment of severance and retirement benefits to employees, the Company provided for the amount considered to have been accrued as of the end of this fiscal year based on the estimated amount of liabilities for severance and retirement benefits and pension assets at year end. Past service liabilities were accounted for as an expense by the amount prorated over a certain number of years (14 years) not exceeding the average remaining service period of employees in the year in which the liabilities are recognized. Actuarial differences were accounted for as expenses effective the fiscal year following their accrual on a declining balance basis over a certain number of years (14 years) not exceeding the average remaining service period of employees in each year of accrual.	(1) Allowance for doubtful accounts Same as left (2) Allowance for bonuses payable Same as left (3) Severance and employee retirement benefits Same as left
6 Method of accounting for lease transactions	Excluding transactions where the ownership of the leasehold asset is transferred to the lessee, finance lease transactions were accounted for in accordance with the normal lease transaction method.	—
7 Hedge accounting method	(1) Hedge accounting method The Company has adopted an exceptional treatment for interest rate swap transactions since the requirements for the treatment have been met. Foreign currency-denominated receivables that are hedged by forward foreign exchange contracts are accounted for using the contracted forward rates. (2) Hedge method and transactions to be hedged (Hedge method) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Interest rate swap transactions</li> <li>• Forward exchange transactions (Transactions to be hedged)</li> <li>• Interest on borrowings (with the risk of loss that may arise due to fluctuations in the interest rate market and will consequently change cash flows)</li> <li>• Foreign currency receivables (with the risk of loss that may arise due to fluctuations in the foreign exchange market that will consequently change cash flows)</li> </ul>	(1) Hedge accounting method Same as left (2) Hedge method and transactions to be hedged Same as left

	FY March 2008 (From Apr. 1, 2007 to Mar. 31, 2008)	FY March 2009 (From Apr. 1, 2008 to Mar. 31, 2009)
7 Hedge accounting method	(3) Hedging policy The Company will engage in derivatives transactions in order to avoid risk of interest rate fluctuations or reduce the burden of interest payment, not in those with a speculative purpose or high leverage effect. The Company will also engage in currency derivatives transactions within the volume of contracts for assets, liabilities, or transactions in foreign currency, since the purpose of derivatives transactions is to hedge transactions in foreign currency against the risk of exchange rate fluctuations. The Company will therefore not conduct derivatives transactions for speculative purposes. (4) Method for valuating the effectiveness of hedge transactions The Company has adopted an exceptional treatment for interest rate swap transactions since the notional principal, conditions for receipt and payment of interest (such as the interest rate and dates of receipt and payment of interest) and contract terms are the same as those for transactions being hedged. The Company has not therefore conducted post tests to evaluate the effectiveness of interest rate transactions. Forward exchange contracts are used to hedge foreign currency exposures under a risk management policy of designing the contract, as it is concluded, to have the same amount and maturity in order to establish a relationship that cancels out any subsequent change in the exchange rate. This allows the Company to dispense with evaluation of the effectiveness of such hedges at the settlement of accounts. (5) Other risk control methods concerned with hedge accounting Since the issuance of corporate bonds to be hedged, borrowing of a large amount of money, and similar acts are subject to resolutions by the board of directors, the conclusion of currency swap or interest rate swap contracts as a means of hedging such bond issuances, borrowings, and the like are to be resolved at the time of the act by the board of directors. Currency and interest derivatives transactions are conducted and managed by the Accounting Department subject to the Corporate Management Rules.	(3) Hedging policy Same as left (4) Method for valuating the effectiveness of hedge transactions Same as left (5) Other risk control methods concerned with hedge accounting Same as left

[Accounting standards of business combination and others]

	FY March 2008 (From Apr. 1, 2007 to Mar. 31, 2008)	FY March 2009 (From Apr. 1, 2008 to Mar. 31, 2009)
(Balance sheet)	In the previous operating year, the amount of pension assets exceeding liabilities for severance and retirement benefits was included in the presentation of "severance and employee retirement benefits" in long-term liabilities. However, from this operating year, the relevant amount is posted separately in "prepaid benefit cost" in investments and other assets (1,396 million yen in the previous operating year).	(Balance sheet) "Other accounts receivable," which had been stated as a separate item in the previous operating year, was included (to the amount of ¥596 million) in Other current assets in Current assets at the end of this fiscal year, because it was insignificant in value.
