

Lives Pouf Kasane

Aristocrats from ancient times used to enjoy seasonal color combinations.

It is a proposal for new color combinations recreating the color sense of the predecessors in modern times, dyed with natural materials.

Seed

From autumn to winter, small red and brown fruits grow all at once on the trees in the forest. The color of the fruit for the plant to increase its offspring.

Tree

When trees gather, they become a forest. From fresh green in spring to deep green in summer, fallen leaves in autumn, and the colors of the trees changing with the seasons.

Water

The rain that falls on the forest soaks into the soil, and after time it becomes a river. The color of the water circulating in the nature.

Shadow

In the forest, various natural processes are repeated and recur cyclically due to the sunlight. The color of the shade of trees, according to the sunlight and the trees.
