With Regards to the Fire at the Company's Nakai Plant (Apology) (Third Report)

With regards to the fire that broke out around 9:30 a.m. on October 25, 2021 (Monday) at the Company's Nakai Plant, we provide an update as of November 5, 2021 (Friday) as follows:

1. Fire site

Okamura Corporation Nakai Plant
390 Sakai, Nakai-machi, Ashigarakami-gun, Kanagawa Prefecture

2. Date/time and circumstances of the fire

Around 9:30 a.m. on October 25 (Monday)	A fire broke out from the painting line for steel furniture and fixtures, shelf boards, etc., inside Nakai Plant.
1:11 p.m. on October 25 (Monday)	The fire authorities confirmed that the fire is under control.
3:35 p.m. on October 25 (Monday)	The fire authorities declared the extinguishing of the fire.
9:00 a.m. on October 26 (Tuesday)	On-site investigation by the police and the fire department

3. Damage

All 73 employees (including temporary employees) who were inside the Nakai Plant and the adjacent distribution center when the fire broke out evacuated the building safely, and nobody was injured. As for damage to the facilities, part of the coating facility (representing about 1/40 of the building's total floor area of 35,388 m²) was damaged by the fire.

4. Cause and countermeasures

An on-site investigation was conducted by the police and the fire department. We are fully cooperating with the investigation by the fire department.

5. Impact on product shipments

Preparation is underway for the resumption of production processes except for coating, and production resumed on November 1, 2021 (Monday). The date of restoration of the affected coating facility is to be determined.

6. Impact on business performance

At this point, we expect that the impact of this fire on the consolidated business performance of the Company will be insignificant.

If we come to expect a significant impact on our business performance, the Company will promptly make a disclosure.

We will determine the cause of the fire and fully implement measures to prevent recurrence, while working to restore the affected facility as soon as possible. We sincerely apologize for having caused great trouble and anxiety to neighborhood residents and other parties concerned.
